“京师哲学暑期学堂” 是什么?

What is BNU Philosophy Summer School?

The summer school, hosted by the School of Philosophy at Beijing Normal University, is dedicated to providing a platform for overseas young scholars to visit China and deeply engage in the study of Chinese philosophy, culture, and other related fields. Through diverse formats such as academic lectures, cultural experiences, and study tours, it aims to enhance the understanding of traditional Chinese culture among outstanding young scholars.

After ten successful years, this program has successfully attracted over 400 overseas elite students from more than 60 countries to study in China.

活动内容

Activities

All lectures, academic comments, and Q&A sessions within the program are exclusively delivered by distinguished experts deeply immersed in the field of philosophy.

Lectures

Cultural Visit

Students can immerse themselves in the profound cultural heritage of Beijing by visiting renowned attractions, such as the Confucian Temple, The Forbidden City, the National Museum and the Great Wall.

We will design study tours to destinations outside Beijing, selecting regions with rich cultural heritage and distinctive local characteristics to create an immersive cultural learning experience for participants.

Study Tour

Presentation

On the final day, students will share learning outcomes, reflect on experiences, and give presentations. After that, the organizing team will present each participant with a certificate of completion.
